2014 Short Range Championship Finals

Ashford Rifle Range, 27th September 2014

2014 Kent Smallbore Short-Range Champion

1st: John Livingstone, Ashford & District RC, 294

2nd: Graham Freeman, Ramsgate & Dover RC, 292

3rd: Darren Sprules Ashford & District RC, 291

John Livingstone posted a strong score of 294 to take the title of Kent Short Range Champion 2014, at the County Short Range Finals last weekend.

The day started with the Club Championship Final, with 4 teams of three having qualified from 13 teams who competed in the postal first stage; the qualifiers being Ashford & District A, B and C teams, and Bearsted A. Sadly Ashford B were unable to field a team on the day, so the remaining three teams competed for the title. With a score of 580, the Bearsted A Team, consisting of D Saunders, A Marsh and M Dowe, took the title.

The 3-card Individual Final featured the top 12 and equal qualifiers from the postal first stage, 10 of whom competed on the day. In a closely fought contest, John Livingstone claimed the title on the last detail of the day, 2 points clear of Graham Freeman in 2nd place.

Meanwhile Diane Russell, of Ashford & District RC, won the Peter Packham Memorial Trophy for the combined short-range and long-range smallbore championship, with Graham Freeman runner-up.

The competition was kindly organised and hosted by the members of Ashford & District Rifle Club, and prizes were presented by John Watterson, Chairman of the KCSSA.
